From the Desk of the President

Fall greetings members!

Here we are starting another fiscal year. We had a good 2015 and did a lot of work to the building and grounds. We were able to fix the structural problems with the roof, and install a new heating and air conditioning unit for the large back room. We also cleaned the front yard, removing the old sign and flower bed and creating a new memorial garden with memorial bricks and a walkway. We also installed a new sign on the front of the building. All of this looks great and improved our library very much. None of this would have been possible without your support and I want to thank each and every one for your donations to these projects. Without you, this would not have been possible.

We recently had a successful yard sale and a baked steak dinner and are planning for next year. Since fall is here, things will slow down a little and we can be thinking and planning for next year.

Wishing all members a Happy Thanksgiving and a Merry Christmas and great New Year. Blessings to all for your support.

Randall E. Nicholson
President

From the Desk

of the Director

Hello Members,

Fall is up on us and winter will be knocking at our door. The time change of “fall back” starts November 1st. This makes us getting up in the dark and coming home in the dark, and makes for a long winter. The plus side is a quieter time at HCPD, so hopeful I will get some needed projects done.

To let you know what has been going on at HCPD, I have made an outline.

Fundraising events:

- July 25th the McWhorter group met for lunch and we served 22 people making a profit of $142.00
- July 27th- Aug 8th We ran a bake less bake sale and made an estimated profit of $300.00
- We had an on-running vintage used book sale and made a profit of over $400.00
- Aug. 7-9th we had our annual Gathering with a total of 27 people attending. Making $225.00
- Sept. 4-6th was the Jubilee Event at Jackson’s Mill and we sold books and sarsaparilla, we cleared on books $1,473.00 and sarsaparilla $77.00 (due to the expense of buying product, and now we sell what is in stock and make clear profit)
- Oct. 2-3rd was our annual fall yard sale. Profit $558.00
- Oct. 25th was our annual Bake Steak Dinner. Profit of $720.00

Occurrences:

- Had a new pan made and installed for the library front air conditioner. Cost $450.00
- Replaced old refrigerator for the cost of $150.00 (paid by donations)
- Had new HCPD sign installed on building, cost $150.00
- Revamped the memorial paver design. Free

Thank you to all members for your support and help. We really appreciate you! Being a non-profit organization this is what we do to raise money to keep the lights on and the doors open, but without your support it would be a losing battle.

Motto: Hats off to the past, sleeves up for the future.

Patty

P.S. Don’t forget to renew your membership if you have not done so.

GLEANINGS REGARDING JACKSON MILL, HOME OF COL. EDWARD JACKSON AND THE JACKSON SALT WORKS NEAR CLARKSBURG, WV

Nancy A. JACKSON

Information gleaned from a 1837 Lewis Co. Chancery Case JACKSON vs. MINTER Heirs is presented in detail because of its importance in reconstructing Jackson Mills and the Jackson Salt Works. The case is related to a land transaction between Col. Edward JACKSON and his neighbor Jacob MINTER. Edward JACKSON and Jacob MINTER died within a short period of each other. Cummins JACKSON claimed that Jacob MINTER owed $500-$600 on the land. Joseph MINTER was the administrator of Jacob MINTER's estate and Cummins along with Henry CAMDEN became the administrator of Col. Edward JACKSON's estate.

A copy of an article of agreement entered into April 1921 for land on the waters of Kincheloe between Jacob MINTER and Edward JACKSON is included in the file. After a deed was made, Isaac COX had claimed part of said land. Edward JACKSON said it was an unjust claim by COX tho [sic] said MINTER bought the Claim of COX without JACKSON's consent. Included in the file is a plat of the land surveyed by George BUSH in 1833 and which began at the Mouth of Kincheloe to the beginning corner of Edward JACKSON's 1000 acres that James TANNER conveyed to Edward JACKSON. The plat shows the tract Edward conveyed to MINTER.

Also included in the file is a plat of land surveyed for James TANNER for 1800 acres. Also included is the 1811 deed between James TANNER and Nancy his wife of the County of Co shot on, OH and Edward JACKSON for 1000 A bounded by Elk Lick Run to join Isaac COX, Philip COX and John NEELY. Also included is a 1799 deed between James TANNER and Margaret his wife of the County of Harrison and Isaac COX for a tract of land situated on the West Fork of the Monongahela adjoining lands claimed by John TINGLEY and on the south side of Kincheloe Creek in Harrison Co. Also in the file is an 1819 deed between Isaac COX of GREEN Co., Oh and Jacob MINTER of Lewis Co., VA. There is also an 1816 deed between Isaac COX and Sarah his wife of Harrison Co. for part of survey Adam SMITH was living on.

The original agreement for the property in question was made in 1811 between Samuel BAILEY, Jacob MINTER and Edward JACKSON and the purchase price was to be payable in three years in property, except in horse flesh. Included in the file is a bill of sale or items from Jacob MINTER to JACKSON. Jacob MINTER did build a house on the land which was allotted to him by Edward JACKSON.

Joseph MINTER, administrator of Jacob MINTER's estate stated that JACKSON had grossly misrepresented to said MINTER and BAILEY the line between COX's line. Edward JACKSON was said to have agreed to discount amount MINTER paid COX. Joseph MINTER contended Edward JACKSON was indebted to Jacob MINTER and that C. E. JACKSON had no right to sue in court.

From the file, it is learned Jacob MINTER was a cabinet maker and house joiner who did a "good deal of work for JACKSON." Jacob also let JACKSON have sock zraine. [?] Jacob MINTER is said to have owned some slaves and was a frugal man.

Jacob MINTER worked For Edward JACKSON

Numerous depositions in the file shows [sic] that Jacob MINTER and sons worked for JACKSON. William BAILEY and Samuel BAILEY testified they understood work done by Jacob MINTER was to "applied for payment of the land in question." It was stated that MINTER worked considerably at the salt works for said JACKSON. Also, Jacob MINTER and son along with William BAILEY worked a considerable time on Jackson's house near his Mills. Jacob also worked on David JACKSON's house. Also, Samuel BAILEY worked on Edward's house near the mill i.e. raising a house. William BAILEY was asked to describe the house and the work done. "As to it size I am unable to state. We helped to raise the house (the logs being old ones) gut out the rafting (and I think the.....-J made the shingles and covered the house.” It was stated that Jacob MINTER and son and himself also worked at the store house. William BAILEY stated he did not recollect where Edward JACKSON lived at the time the work was done but “believe he did not live on the land upon which the store house was built.” William BAILEY stated he thought the work done by MINTER at the salt works was about 1814 or 1815 and the work done on the house was done about the year 1815. Work done at the salt work consisted of covering two furnaces (7), work on the hay and salt houses.

They also made a dam for said JACKSON at his mills. Jacob MINTER and son also covered a shed attached to the house making two or three doors and several windows – “the work to the dwelling house was done about 10 years since the other work about 16 years since.” It was later stated two doors were made and cased and he cased three windows, helped to raise the shed, weather boarded the gable end of the house and also the gable end of the shed.

In 1833 John BAILEY gave a deposition. Also, David W. SLEETH gave a deposition and from this deposition it is learned that Jacob MINTER died before Col. Edward JACKSON. Elizabeth BUSH in her deposition stated she was “at the house of Col. Edward JACKSON during his illness and but a short time before his death” and heard him say Jacob MINTER owed him nothing and that a deed was to be made.

Thomas H. BAILEY also gave a deposition. He said Jacob MINTER and sons helped to build a dam betterment connected together on the East side of the river. The also helped to build a house where Cummins now lives. “I don’t know whether they built the entirety themselves, or only helped, but they did a good deal of work at said House. I think father and them also covered the old mansion but I am not positive as to that. They also did a good deal of work at the Salt works in Harrison Co. building salt sheds over the furnace and Salt Houses.” He thought the dam in “this County was built 1814 or 1815.” It was stated his father, MINTER and sons built the whole of said dam which was about seven feet high and he believed the lower side of said dam was rough hewn timber. It appeared to him that the dam was covered with puncheons. Cummins E. JACKSON asked: “Do you or do you not remember my building on said puncheons, raising dam between two and three feet higher. Thomas~ replied he did not. Cummins then asked about work done on his house – “please state what kind of work they did, and whether the logs of which said dam was built were new logs or not. Thomas replied they were hewed logs but did not know if they were new or old. It was stated they also put on a shingled roof and that they did some inside work. It was stated he thought the Salt Works commenced in 1809 or 1810 but didn’t know the year Col. JACKSON moved there.

A deposition was also taken of Carr BAILEY who testified that he believed the river was fifty yards where the dam was built. He was asked if he knew anything about work done by Jacob and Joseph MINTER at the Salt works near John BRAKE in Harrison Co. He stated he couldn’t specify the kind and quantity. He believed they were at work either at the Mills or pump House. Carr BAILEY stated he assisted to lay the floors and weather boards. It was stated the “ol man (Jacob MINTER) was also engrossed in hewing timber together with him and Samuel BAILEY. “I think that the said Jacob MINTER worked on the Slope at the dam at the aforesaid works – as to the quantity of work done by the MINTERs aforesaid I cannot say.” He stated he thought Jacob BRAKE had the management of said Salt Works at time work was done or at least a part of the time, James BARTLETT was manager part of the time and that Col. Edward JACKSON had also the management of said Works a part of the time, whether said artie had the management when the MINTERs worked on them I cannot say.” He was asked if the work was done before or since the late War but stated he wasn’t certain. From this deposition, it is learned there was a Saw Mill on Kincheloe Creek and one on the West Fork River. It was stated Jacob MINTER’s trade was a house carpenter and cabinet maker. He thought the logs used for Cummin’s house were old logs.

From the file it is known that the house (it is not clear what house he is talking about) was covered and had shingles. Carr BAILEY stated when laying the floor and weatherboarding said House and building Jacob BRAKE lived in the house at the Salt works “and it strikes my mind

Col. Edward JACKSON at that time lived at the Mill Cummins E. JACKSON now holds.

A deposition was taken of Richard HALL. Richard HALL stated he thought in the year 1813 in July or August he worked at the said Salt Works and during that time Jacob and Joseph MINTER worked at said Salt Works and were employed in getting out timber to build a Salt House which was not built while he was there. They build a Hay house and assisted in covering the large furnace and also putting up the frame of said furnace. A man by the name of PRUNTY made the principal part of the boards for said furnace. It was stated Col. Edward JACKSON was living there at the time and was employed by him. Richard Hall said he did know of the MINTERs working at the "Mansion House" in which the widow of the said Col. Edward JACKSON deceased died. He stated he remembered the said MINTER fixing a store in said House by making a petition through it and putting up shelves and counters during the life time of said JACKSON, who at the time lived at the Salt Works in Harrison Co. In regards to the Hay House (this would be at the Salt Works) it was built on forks and covered with a cabin roof and PRUNTY made the boards to cover the said house.

A deposition was also take[n] of John I. [?] BROWN who referred to the Mansion House in which Col. Edward JACKSON died. John state[d] he hauled the timbers for the dam and mill in the fall of 1813 at which time MINTER and Samuel BAILEY stated they were to put dam up. He understood MINTER and BAILEY to be partners. When asked by Cummins if he knew of Jacob MINTER working on his father's store house in 1811, he relied he didn't remember but recollected him working on it in 1815. Juliet JACKSON in her deposition described work done putting up a partition is David JACKSON's house. George WHITE testified that in 1811, he was married and lived in the same place of Col. Edward. He stated he got a chest of Col. Edward.

David W. SLEETH was asked if he knew about Jacob MINTER doing any work on "my father's house." David responded: "I know not – Jacob MINTER worked at a house Col. JACKSON then lived, whether it was intended for a store house or not I cannot – able to say neither can I tell the year but think it was after your father moved from the salt works.

John HENLINE in his deposition stated he knew Jacob MINTER worked at Salt works in 1814. John stated he went there (salt works) in 1813 – winter or fall and worked whole of the year – was the beginning of the salt works and in 1814 Jacob and Joseph, were assisting their father Joseph at the salt mills.

A deposition was also taken of William NORRIS which shows Jacob MINTER was living in the Spring of 1828, and that Jacob MINTER stated he would vote for Col. JACKSON if he would not sue him and settle fairly. William Norris, when asked, stated the house near the mills at which Jacob MINTER and son worked was 16 feet square and Had a shed to it 10 x 17 ft. He stated it would take a good hand 21-22 days to hew out the rafters, make the lathing and shingles for and cover the said house and shed. William NORRIS stated he had seen Jacob MINTER working at the salt works owned by Col. JACKSON or Judge JACKSON (this would be John George JACKSON) and understood he was employed by Col. Edward.

A deposition was taken of Washington BAILEY. In a deposition of George BUTCHER, the latter stated he "was this day called to examine the work done by Jacob MINTER for Col. Edward JACKSON on the house on the opposite side of the River from his dwelling house and accordingly examined said house and found that it required fourteen hundred and thirty six shingles to cover the house and shed the gable ends were closed with what is usually called clabboards [sic] and required upwards of one hundred and sixty boards for that purpose which are usually counted as shingles and with the shingles would come about 17—the house has seven pair of rafters hewed out of split timber the shed has seven rafters and is sixteen feet long, the house has twenty courses of ? including both sides. Work done by Jacob MINTER. Henry FLESHER hewed the logs for said house.

George BUTCHER also examined the said JACKSON's dwelling house said to have been done by Jacob MINTER. It consisted of one front door made hung and cased, one partition door made hung, one twelve light window cased, one six light window cased and four light window cut out and cased. Twenty two lights of sash made. The South end of the house from above three feet from the ground weather boarded the plank not planed but jointed and butted. He stated that about 1812 or 1814 Jacob MINTER did considerable work at said Edward JACKSON's mill dam. He stated Jacob MINTER took off the roof on Col. Edward's house and Deposition of Edward BROWN stated he also worked on the Mill Dam which was to be five feet high. Raised the house a round or two higher and placed the roof on again and that MINTER weather boarded the north gable end of the house.

A deposition was taken of David E. JACKSON by the Clerk of the County of Ste Genevieve 30 Mar.

The deposition of Rachel BRAKE was unreadable. Jacob BRAKE in his deposition stated he moved to the Salt works in April 1814 and kept a book until 1825. Jacob BRAKE stated he employed Jacob MINTER, son Joseph, Capt. BAILEY and found a memorandum dated Oct. 1815 where he paid them.

In 1836 CAMDEN reported to the Court that there was "express difficulty in acertaining [sic] proper state of accounts between the parties. In the Fall of 1837 the case was dismissed.

Maybe It's Time to Put Another Jackson Statue Up in Front of the Harrison County Court House

By Stephen N. REED | July 16, 2015

Thomas J. "Stonewall" JACKSON, born in Clarksburg, West Virginia, was a walking contradiction.

A highly devout Presbyterian, his battlefield prowess nearly extended an evil institution like slavery for many years to come. A slave owner himself, he nevertheless insisted on creating a Sunday School class for enslaved people at his church in Lexington, Va., before the war. There he served as a professor at the Virginia Military Institute, better known as VMI.

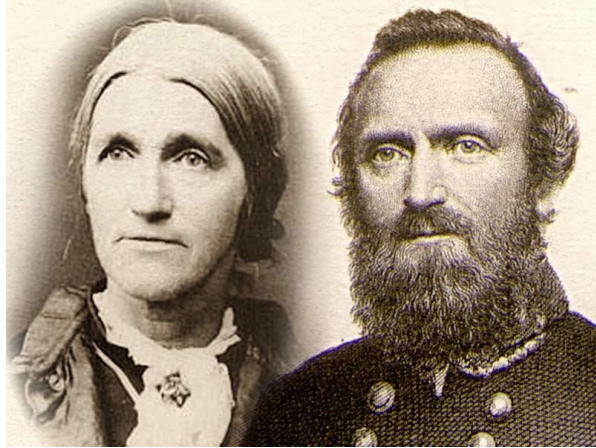

Below is an excerpt of a letter from the VMI archives, written by JACKSON to a professor friend at what was then Washington College, also in Lexington. The letter, dated June 7, 1858, demonstrates JACKSON's desire to give each of Lexington's enslaved people credit for having both a soul and a mind:

"... The school is usually opened by singing part of a hymn, which should be announced the previous Sabbath. This is followed by reading one or more verses from the Bible, with explanations & applications; this is succeeded by prayer.

"After this, each class is instructed by its teacher from the Bible, catechism and hymn book. At the close of the school which is near forty five minutes from the opening, there is a public examination on two verses of the child catechism, published by our Board. These verses should be announced the previous Sabbath ..."

JACKSON worked on this growing project for at least three years. When JACKSON started a new project, he kept with it, even over the objections of those in his church who believed in the segregation laws of the time.

According to the VMI archives, JACKSON's Sunday School class ranged in number from 80-100 and was comprised of both adults and children—all enslaved people.

Now comes the obvious question: how could an educated man, so consumed with this worthy project to educate and spiritually edify enslaved people, also be a slave owner himself?

Moreover, how could JACKSON fight for the South and its efforts to preserve slavery if he regarded enslaved people better than most of his southern peers? Something here does not compute.

Welcome to the strange dichotomy of living as an educated person in 1850s America, particularly in the South where slavery had taken root at least four generations prior. Long before JACKSON's time, prominent Virginia leaders like Jefferson and Washington had wrestled with the enslaved people's humanity — while owning them as personal property.

But it fell to JACKSON's generation to choose which side of the country they would fight for in a war that was substantially over the issue of slavery. Stonewall was not the only JACKSON family member that had to choose which way to go.

The general's beloved sister, Laura JACKSON ARNOLD, chose a far different path than her brother. While Stonewall fought for the South, Laura sided with the North, serving as a volunteer Union Army nurse.

Laura JACKSON ARNOLD was very disappointed in her brother for siding with the rebels. She felt personally betrayed by his decision. After all, they had grown up together, shared the same background and worldview.

Of her own work as a nurse on the battlefield, she famously said, "I expect that we will have to patch up our boys just as quickly as brother Thomas shoots them down."

That grim determination was a JACKSON family trait. Think about facing your own famous brother and his army across the battle lines to get an idea of her flintiness.

After the war began, they never saw each other again, as JACKSON died of wounds following the Battle of Chancellorsville in May of 1863, one month shy of West Virginia's statehood.

Laura lived for many years following the war and was a minor celebrity for being the sister of the great Confederate general.

Though Laura JACKSON ARNOLD is not as well-known as her brother, some have suggested that erecting a statue to her, near her famous sibling's statue at either the state capitol or in Harrison County, would be appropriate on two levels.

First, her statue could be a way to honor all the women nurses who tended to the hundreds of thousands of sick and dying soldiers on both sides of the great conflict. They were many, and their compassionate service is underappreciated.

Secondly, what could be more emblematic of the war's "brother vs. brother" intimacy than a "brother vs. sister" pair of statues in front of the Harrison County Court House....just 30 yards from the JACKSON family home? The Civil War really did divide families like the JACKSON's. That was a real part of the conflict's heartache for families in West Virginia and the border states.

Perhaps the time has come to honor one of West Virginia's nobler women spirits in the form of Laura JACKSON ARNOLD.

Putting her statue up today would be a sufficient challenge to her brother's statue and, together, they would tell a fuller story of the American Civil War's struggle and all it has meant.

Note: I attribute my deep interest in family and local history to my paternal grandmother, Lillus Mamie SULLIVAN GREGOIRE (1887-1967) and her next older sister, Bertha Ethel SULLIVAN EPERTHANER (1885-1965 (pictured at left). These two ladies were both born on the SULLIVAN family farm located at what would become the ____ end of Adams Avenue in today's Clarksburg neighborhood of Adamston. Their father, Enoch B. SULLIVAN, had purchased Lot #16 containing 174 poles of land from the estate of Josias ADAMS<sup>2</sup> on 12 March 1872. Both ladies would spend their entire lives on that tract of land, only leaving it in their final days when each of them died in what was then St. Mary's Hospital on Chestnut Street in Clarksburg. Both are buried with their spouses in the SULLIVAN Section of Greenlawn Cemetery. This story is a tribute to these two wonderful women.

By virtue of preemption Treasury Warrant 2335, issued 16 Oct 1782, there is granted unto John SULEVAN (sic), assignee of Samuel HANVAY (HANWAY), who was assignee of Calder HAYMOND, 100 acres surveyed 28 July 1783, lying in the county of Monongalia on Laurel Hill and waters of Sandy Creek, near Mason and Dixons line, beginning at a chestnut. . . . (Virginia Land Grants 1782-1785, p. 329). The land was on both sides of the road that led from James MCOLUM's to David JOHN's Mill.

The Treasury Warrant above is the first written record of the SULLIVAN family progenitor. John. The record is from the 1780s and is mentioned in the Monongalia County, (West) Virginia, Order Book in Law and Chancery Court 1800-1803, John is deceased and his children and their spouses are named in a civil suit. The suit involves land sold to Michael FRITTS, Ann FRITTS and Owen DARBY and Margaret, his wife, formerly Margaret FRITTS.

Sometime during the 1780s, he sold the above mentioned tract to Michael FRITTS. It was signed with his mark, a highly stylized "S" and witness by Da. MCCOLLUM and Wm. SQUIRES. (Monongalia Co. Court Records, Box 30, Env. 133a.) According to another resource, the deed was originally signed 18 Nov 1788 was proved invalid because it wasn't signed by the required three witnesses nor was it acknowledged in court within the required 8 months. The suit was dismissed in March of 1804, apparently because none of the defendants still resided in the county. (Monongalia County Court Records Box 30, Env. 133a.)

The name of this John's spouse is unknown; however, it is certain that they had at least one son.

The photo below, where is now located Book Holders, 1370 University Avenue, Morgantown, is the site of John's home for a period of time. The lot belonged to either Asa DUDLEY or Jacob FOULK, the potter, and his wife Elizabeth. The land was described as being on west side of the Monongahela River, being same land that was conveyed to FOULK by Thomas EVANS.<sup>4</sup> This property transaction ended in a dispute when Thomas PINDALL died.

John SULLIVAN was said to be a "poor man" with several children. He served on numerous juries in the county and was even jailed himself a time or two.

On 9 July 1803, at a meeting at the house of Henry DERING, SULLIVAN was one of those subscribers who signed to build a schoolhouse for Morgantown. The building would be 30 x 30 with 9 foot walls. The school to be at Michael KERNS. John said he would give $3 "payable in work."

On 12 Aug 1804 he was called to testify in a lawsuit involving the Thomas CHIPPS estate. Then in 1806 he leased from Noah RIDGEWAY part of RIDGEWAY'S plantation on the west side of Monongahela River opposite Morgantown for seven years and signed name with an "x." - B. Henry SULLIVAN, b. ABT 1798 in Morgantown, Monongalia Co, (W)V, d. 1855 in Buffalo Creek, Marion Co, (W)V. Proof that John is his father is found in his marriage record to "Liza DOSON"<sup>13</sup>. John signed with his x, as did Moses "DOSON." Henry and Liza were married 16 October 1816 in Monongalia County. The fate of Liza is unknown; but, she apparently died within a year or so. On 17 January 1819 in Monongalia County, Henry married Milo SMITH.<sup>14</sup>

Milo SMITH SULLIVAN<sup>15</sup> was born 1800/1802 in Monongalia (Marion) Co, (W)V (daughter of John SMITH and Louisa MOORE), d. AFT 1860, probably in Marion County. Proof of Milo's parentage can be found in Deed Book DB OS5/491, Monongalia County: That document includes the following information.

*2 Jul 1813 John SMITH of Monongalia County to Milo SMITH, Elizabeth SMITH, and Nancy LAUGHLIN SMITH for $180 paid by each respectively, 184 acres part of tract of 879 acres purchased by John CASEDY of Henry BARNES & sold by him to James FERREL & sold by him to William PATTEN & sold by him to Benjamin MATHEWS & sold by him to John SMITH & sold by said SMITH to Milo SMITH, Elizabeth SMITH & Nancy LAUGHLIN SMITH. . . on drains of three fork creek and bounded . . . . Witnessed by Thomas MARTIN, John MARTIN, and Samuel MARTIN.
No dowers rights noted.*

The above deed is recorded on same page and transfers of 170 acres on Three Forks Creek from John SMITH of Monongalia County to Chandler of New York for $1000. This property is the same property that was sold by John FAIRFAX and Ann his wife to John SMITH of Halifax County, NC, on Three Fork Creek for $500. The transaction between FAIRFAX and SMITH occurred 4 May 1812. The author believes there is an inference here that John SMITH who sold to Milo, etc., is same as John SMITH of Halifax County. But, the question does remain: Is this John SMITH the same John SMITH who is these girls' father?

A John SMITH, this John SMITH????, served in War of 1812 according to Wiley's History of Monongalia.

Henry and Milo SULLIVAN were the parents of fourteen (14) identified children.<sup>16</sup> Henry was the sexton of the Methodist Church in Shinnston, but may have also been a minister. He was killed while going thru the mill "shouting and singing" and his coat got caught in the grinding mechanism. He died intestate.

According to Phil NEETZ, a descendant of the administrator of the estates of Henry & Milo and also guardian for certain children and grandchildren is Aaron VINCENT. He was the M.E. minister and married at least four of family- Elijah SULLIVAN and Helen Mary MATSON in 1855; Josephus BILLINGSLEY and Mary Margaret SULLIVAN in 1863; Luther Franklin SULLIVAN and Louisa MOORE in 1871; and Uriah MOORE to Elizabeth MATSON in 1880.

<sup>16</sup> Some sources indicate that there may have been as many as seven more children in this family; however, this author has found no proof of this assumption. If the assumption were correct, there would have been 21 children in 33 years of married life for Henry SULLIVAN.

He married Katurah, aka Katie or Sarah BATSON, in Marion Co, (W)V, b. 13 Apr 1812 in Virginia (daughter of Abel BATSON and Margaret "Peggy" WILLOUGHBY), buried in Barnes Cemetery, Half Rock, Mercer Co, MO, d. 13 Mar 1885 in Mercer County, MO. Katurah was also called "Kitty BATHAM."

An 1843 reference to John O. is found in Marion County, (W)V, Law Order Book 1, June 1843. John O. SULLIVAN, plaintiff; George DENT, defendant; case dismissed.

In the 1850 census, John was in Marion County, WV; 1860 in Harrison County. John and Katurah purchased property in 1865 in Harrison County. The author believes this property was transferred to Enoch. He was living in Columbus, OH, 30 May 1875, when they transferred property owned by Katie at Cherry Camp, Harrison Co, WV. He lived in the Tindall Station, MO, area in 1882. Wife of Andrew Jackson BATSON, Elizabeth M. KOON. Her brother Elias Blackshear KOON was the seller of the J. O. SULLIVAN property, Myers Twp., Grundy Co., MO.

John and Katie moved first to Ohio about 1873 and then onto to Missouri about 1880. He died there in 1904. However, the story of John's family in West Virginia has another twist. This writer discovered it a few years ago when she met Phil NEETZ, that John SULLIVAN had three more children, two daughters and a son born to Sarah MATSON. That story is on the next page and is supported by birth records in the Harrison County, WV, Courthouse and other documents. The descendants of John O. SULLIVAN by Sarah MATSON will appear in HCJ Volume XXXIV, Issue 1, in April 2016.

NOTES FROM PHIL NEETZ

My gggg grandfather, Robert WADSWORTH, served in the Revolutionary War as a member of George WASHINGTON's bodyguard. Following the war he settled in Maryland. Around 1809 he received, as a reward for his war service, land in western Virginia, near what is now known as Shinnston, WV. He moved his entire family there, including his eldest daughter Elizabeth. In 1822 Elizabeth WADSWORTH married a Samuel BRYNES, but their marriage was short-lived. Samuel was killed later that same year when a tree he was cutting fell upon him. Elizabeth moved back home. Her father died shortly thereafter, in 1823, and her brothers were anxious to find her another husband since she was alleged to be "bossy."

Into this situation came James Dempsey MATSON. Born into an affluent Philadelphia family, he came into some sort of trouble and fled for his life. He ended up in the obscure village of Shinnston. He was in his forties and apparently unmarried. Elizabeth's brother's approached him with an offer to live on one of their farms if he would only marry their sister. James took them up on the offer and married Elizabeth in 1824. They had four children, two of whom lived to adulthood: Sarah Ann MATSON, born in 1824, and Helen Mary MATSON, born in 1831.

The MATSONs eventually gained land next to the WADSWORTHs, and the area became known as "Matson Run." Time passed. In 1854 two events of note took place. James died at the age of 76. His wife and children continued living in the same location. And Henry SULLIVAN traded his land in Marion County for the River Mill on the banks of the West Fork River in Shinnston, Harrison County. One of Henry's sons, WILSON L. SULLIVAN, was a miller, and he and his father apparently went into business together. The mill was located, according to a book on old mills, at the spot where Matson Run came down to the West Fork River. Thus it was that the MATSON family came into contact with the SULLIVANs. We know that they knew one another, for in 1855 one of Henry's YOUNGER sons, Elijah, married Helen Mary MATSON. . Henry's eldest son, John, must have visited his father often, and also met Sarah Ann MATSON.

According to a family tradition which I first became aware of only a few years ago, Sarah Ann never married yet had three children. The father of these children is said to be John SULLIVAN. At the time they met, about 1855, John was 33 and in the prime of life. His wife Katurah, however, was ten years older and perhaps, if I may speculate, becoming less interested in "marital relations." Sarah Ann was 31, unmarried, and available. Three children were the result of what seems to have been an on again, off again relationship: Mary Jane MATSON in 1857, Elizabeth C. MATSON about 1861, and my great grandfather James Ellsworth MATSON in 1865. Sarah Ann remained in Shinnston until the late 1890's when she moved to be with her son in first Ritchie and then Wirt County. She died in 1901. We all know that John moved first to Ohio about 1873 and then onto to Missouri about 1880, and that he died in 1904. My second cousin said that some of the MATSON family visited the SULLIVANs in Adamston, Clarksburg, and that the two families were aware of one another at the time (whenever that time was).

Meanwhile, we continue with children born to John O. SULLIVAN by his wife Katurah BATSON.

According to family stories, he lived at the Weston State Hospital where he was a patient most of his adult life. He while he had some mental issues he was not retarded. The author of this article has a book of scripture and poetry which he wrote. Another family member recalls his sister,

Lillus SULLIVAN GREGOIRE, telling that the family tried to bring him home to live but he was never comfortable there. He is buried in the family plot at Greenlawn.

Enoch B. SULLIVAN built this home for his family at a date unknown. A fire, at an unknown date, destroyed much of the right side of the house. Enoch rebuilt it and continued to raise his family here. The small building to the right was the "smokehouse" where the family smoked and preserved the meat they raised. After the passing of Enoch and Susan, the home was occupied by their next to youngest daughter, Bertha Ethel, and her husband Louis EPERTHANER. The author remembers that the building retained its smoky smell until it and the house were both razed after her nephew, Resta S. GREGOIRE, inherited it and then sold it to the nearby glass plant. Later a large portion of the land behind the house was taken for the four-lane US 50 and the restructuring of Pike Street and Adams Avenue. The only remnant remaining is the triangular shaped fishpond (now filled with debris) which was located in the middle of the lower quadrant of the photo.

The small building immediately behind the house was a single car garage. The oblong building behind it was brick and was built to house the family business known as "The House of Resta, Inc." ## NOTE FROM THE EDITOR:

Dear HCPD Members:

We have a wonderful core of officers and board members, all of them volunteers, who take care of the day-to-day operations of HCPD and the Central West Virginia Genealogy and History Library. They help with fundraisers to make the $$ to keep the lights on and preserve our collections; they work in the library and help patrons who come looking for answers to all kinds of questions; and they answer correspondence from folks who write in with questions. Most of them have been, in fact every one of them, have been involved as volunteers for no less than a decade and some for many, more

We have only ONE paid staff member, Patty Lesondak; she does a great job. In addition to her managerial duties, she spends considerable time getting our message out via Facebook and public appearances around Central West Virginia. The remainder of the work is done by those mentioned in the previous paragraph.

You will note that, in addition to business issues, there are only three stories in this issue of the Hacker's Creek Journal. There is a reason for this: Only the first two stories, the ones dealing with the JACKSON family, were submitted for this issue.

When it came time to put this issue together, I had nothing else to go with it. As in recent years, to fill the issue I've used my own material. That is what I did this time. . . thus the long story on the SULLIVAN family. This issue is nearly twice as big as it has been in recent years. I used a lot of their story because their story is truly about all of Central West Virginia as well as many other locations across this great nation of ours. However, there was still not room for their entire story, As noted in various places, the SULLIVAN story will continue in HCJ Volume 34, Issue 1.

This was no easy task and required nearly a month of eight-hour days to complete this issue. The second part will be a bit easier, I hope.

However, please note that this WILL NOT happen again. Once the next issue is completed in April 2016, I will be relying on YOU, our MEMBERS, to submit stories for the Journal. This Journal belongs to YOU, our members, and without your input future Journals will be much smaller than they are now.

HOW TO SUBMIT STORIES FOR HCJ

1. Stories may be any length. However, 2500 words or so is a nice, but they may be shorter or longer.
2. Use any font and font size of your choosing. I can always change that.
3. Capitalize all SURNAMES in every instance.
4. Footnotes are nice. If you have source for them, it helps to authenticate the information – especially if someone might use your information for other purposes, i.e., SAR or DAR membership, etc.
5. Prefer submission by e-mail to editor@hackerscreek.com or send to HCPD, 45 Abbotts Run Road, Horner, WV 26372
